Hundreds Greet Notre Dame Team Upon Return from East

INJURY TO BROWN ONLY DAMPER UPON SPIRITS OF SQUAD

Stellar Guard May Be Out for Season With Dislocated Elbow—Team Lauded.

BY PAUL G. FUNK.

In the heart of South Bend at midnight last night 600 Notre Dame men cheered the returning eleven that outgaited the Army, heavier by 11 pounds to the man, in Saturday's combat on the Plains at West Point, N. Y.

While the Notre Dame band played the school's famous "Victory March" and while scores of redlight torches glowed along the station platform, these loyal college youths showed their delight over the showing made by their Fighting Irish.

Long before train time the crowd gathered, including men and women, boys and girls, but made up chiefly of college students, at the New York Central station. For more than a half hour the crowd waited for the train which was late. Players were grabbed by enthusiastic rooters but Coach Knute K. Rockne evaded the crowd, slipping out of another coach and hurrying immediately to a waiting auto. Demands of the crowd to hear from him were futile.

Parade Through Streets.

Following the reception the students paraded back to Michigan street and Washington blvd., where a baggage truck was put into use and cheerleader Johnny Gleason told the crowd of the game.

Beside the truck Gus Deach and Duke Hodler held tight to a mule which carried the banner, "We rode you—now we're through." "It was a great game," said Gleason, "and it would do any of your hearts good to have seen it. To see our team outwitted by more than 19 pounds to the man and then see the old Notre Dame fight, crash in there and hold the Cadets was wonderful. Why the whole crowd yelled for Notre Dame except, of course, the Cadets themselves."

Coach Rockne was cheered, Paul Costner, Jimmy Cronley, in fact the entire team came in for individual yells. The street light went out but the "pup" session kept right on while the "Victory March" was repeated and a last "locomotive" where the fighting team of Notre Dame and preparations for Butler on Saturday.

Brown Badly Hurt.

With the exception of Harvey Brown, the miniature guard of the squad came through without a scratch. Brown is believed to have suffered a dislocated elbow and it appears that he will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. He was hurt in the second period when he was caught under a pile of West Point heavyweights.

With the return of the squad fans recollected that it was the first time that Notre Dame has been in since 1918, when the Irish held a formidable Great Lakes 7 to 7 score. Students and fans who witnessed the game were more than satisfied with its outcome, even though a tie, because of the great odds in weight which told on the inexperienced Gold and Blue team. Even at that, it had not been for unfortunate breaks the blue-jerseyed squad would have come back winners.

No time will be lost by coaches in their preparations for Butler and Hal Griggs, the downstate kicking star, which is to be met at Indianapolis on Saturday. Only three more games remain on the Irish schedule, those with Butler, Carnegie Tech and Nebraska, and hopes for an undefeated year are brighter than ever.

Tronight's workout will, of course, not be a strenuous one, but the entire squad will be out to limber up.

Quarterback of U. of P. Freshmen Eleven Dies of Football Injuries

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—(By A. P.)—Andrew Lang of Binghamton, N. Y., quarterback of the University of Pennsylvania freshman football team, died today from injuries received in a game with Mercersburg Academy on Nov. 4. The remainder of the freshman schedule has been cancelled and varsity practice has been called off for tomorrow.

Lang's fifth vertebrae was broken and despite an operation performed the same day by Dr. Charles H. Frazier, he became badly paralyzed.

BOILERMAKERS TO STRIVE HARD FOR INDIANA STRUGGLE

Homecoming Game on Nov. 25
Only Remaining Contest
on Purdue Schedule.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 12.—With the Northwestern game a thing of the past, all football energies at Purdue university are to the center on the remaining games of the season, with Indiana, here November 25. Coach James Phelan will have two weeks in which to prepare his Boilermakers for what all Purdue fans look upon as the biggest football game of the season for both teams.

Indiana, in the last four or five years, has had an edge on the Old Gold and Black teams in regard to games won, although the total of victories in all football games that have been played between the two institutions rest with the Boilermakers. Purdue this year will endeavor to get back into the win column.

Prepare For Next Year.

Should Purdue be able to defeat Indiana in the homecoming contest which will be viewed by thousands of old Purdue grads from all over the country, followers of Purdue athletics will look upon the season as having achieved its purpose—namely the laying of a foundation for teams of years to come. Coach Phelan was handicapped this year by much inexperienced material, and few veterans, and on top of this, his work has been hampered throughout the season by injuries to several of his best men.

The freshmen squad this year seems to contain a number of men of above the average football ability. This new material, coupled with the veterans of this season, should enter the 1923 season with higher hopes than has been the case for the past decade. Phelan, in his first year with the university, has become very popular with the student body and faculty, and particularly with his football squad. The grid men are all for "Jimmie" as he is known here, and his popularity should aid him immensely in turning out next year's eleven.

The two teams—Purdue and Indiana—appear about evenly matched about this time, and both have two weeks in which to prepare for the contest, it should be one of the best of recent years.

WALSH HALL ELEVEN
DOWNS GOSHEN ELKS

A brilliant forward passing attack in the last ten minutes of play put Walsh hall on top of a 15 to 0 count in their game with the Goshen Elks at Goshen yesterday afternoon. For more than three periods the two teams fought evenly until the Notre Dame eleven unleashed its aerial attack, scoring two touchdowns and a field goal. Joe Allen of the Walsh team sustained a severe injury to his knee during the scrap.

WIN OVERTIME GAME.

PIERCETON, Ind., Nov. 12.—In the final minute of an overtime period the Piercetown high school basketball team defeated Tippecanoe high school by a score of 14 to 13.

BURKET HIGH WINS.

BURKET, Ind., Nov. 12.—The Burket high school basketball quintet defeated the Sidney five by a score of 21 to 5. In the first half Burket led by a score of 6 to 4.

KAZOO GRIDDERS PUNISHED
For Fumbling; Must Carry
Pigskins Around for Week

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 12.—(By A. P.)—Because seven of his players fumbled the ball in the battle with Valparaiso university, Coach Ralph Young, of Kalamazoo college, gave each of the men a football at the close of the contest and ordered that they carry the pigskins with them everywhere they went during the next week. Should any of them be found without the ball in their possession, no matter where it was, during the week, he said, they would be thrown out of the team. Kalamazoo won from Valparaiso, 21 to 14, the visitors making their two touchdowns as a result of fumbles.

SATURDAY'S GAMES IN EAST FEATURED BY KEEN BATTLES

Army-Notre Dame and Tiger-Crimson Battles Outstanding—Cornell Strong.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(By A. P.)—Triumphing over Harvard, 10 to 5, in the first of the annual "big three" gridiron clashes after a hard struggle, Princeton's alert fighting eleven today had strengthened its claims to the mythical championship in eastern ranks. The Tiger must face the Yale Bulldogs next Saturday in the final test, but followers of the team that dashed spectacularly from behind to crush such eleven as Chicago and Harvard were confident of a crowning victory.

While the Harvard-Princeton battle held the center of the east's football stage, keen interest was manifested in several other major games. Chief among these was Cornell's smashing victory over Dartmouth, 23 to 0, at the Polo grounds. Lafayette's decisive defeat of Rutgers, 36 to 6, at New Brunswick, N. J., and Pittsburg's sensational 7 to 6 decision over Pennsylvania at Philadelphia—the second straight setback suffered by the Quakers in their checkered 1922 career and the seventh victory for the Panthers in the last eight engagements with the Red and Blue.

Cornell Shows Strength.

Cornell's hard driving, powerful eleven established itself firmly among the east's first flight by outpacing, although not outgaining the Green team that held Harvard to a 12 to 3 score two weeks ago. And in Capt. Eddie Kay, all-American halfback, Cornell's brilliant defensive and offensive play featured the game, the Ithaca possess one of the outstanding stars of the season.

Army and Notre Dame fought furiously to a scoreless tie at West Point in the principal intercollegiate classic Saturday, a fumble on West Point's four yard line in the last quarter costing the westerners their best chance to score, but the east came off victorious in most of the intercollegiate tussle. Boston college trouncing Baylor, a southern institution, 33 to 0, Navy overwhelming St. Xavier's of Cincinnati, 52 to 0; Washington and Jefferson repelling the invasion of Walsh, 32 to 6; while West Virginia was victorious over Indiana, 32 to 0, on the gridiron. Georgia Tech, at Atlanta, however, handed a setback to Georgetown, 19 to 7. Syracuse added a touch of international triumph by trouncing McGill university of Canada, 32 to 0.

Yale Seconds Win Easily.

Yale, using its second and third eleven against Maryland while the regulars witnessed the Harvard-Princeton game, romped to a 45 to 5 victory. Pennsylvania State displayed a return to form in downing Carnegie Tech, 10 to 0. Brown out-fought Bates, 27 to 12, while five field goals helped Williams defeat Wesleyan, 22 to 7, in the other important contests on the eastern schedule.

Princeton's triumph, coming on top of talk from Harvard sources that the two teams might meet next year because of schedule limitations, shattered two Crimson traditions. It was the first defeat administered by the Tigers on Harvard's own field since 1896 and the first time since the advent of the Haugh-ton system in 1908 that the same team has beaten the Cambridge eleven twice in succession.

Harvard fumbled the way for both Princeton scores and "Pinkey" Baker, right tackle who recovered one that led to the only touchdown of the game, ranks today with such heroes as Sam White and Ralph Gilroy in the Tiger hall of fame. The same Baker made Princeton's other three points from the field while George Owen's sole scoring claim to the championship of Europe. The only official champion is Crigui. I cannot prevent Matthews from calling himself champion of Europe, of the world, or anything else he likes. Let him beat Crigui December 2 and then we shall see."

First of Amateur Boxing Shows to Be Given Saturday

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—(By A. P.)—The first of a series of boxing shows for the season will be given by the Hoosier Athletic club will be given in the club rooms here, next Saturday night, Nov. 18. Ten bouts among the best amateur boxers of the city and state are included on the card.

Efforts are being made to match George Mulholland, present national light heavyweight champion, with an upstate man. Negotiations also are under way to secure a good out-of-town lightweight to oppose Raymond Hahn, and a fast-punching bantam weight to box Merrill Alie.

George Lipps, physical director of the Hoosier Athletic club, says he will be glad to hear from any amateur boxers in the state who would like to enter.

Brennan Rated High Among Backs

QUARTERBACK BRENNAN

In modern football there is no more important cog in a successful team than the quarterback. Lafayette is conceded to have one of the strongest teams in the east this year. One of the big reasons is the fine play of Quarterback Brennan.

Brennan uses keen judgment in the selection of his plays and in addition is a dangerous open field runner.

CRIGUI PLANNING VISIT TO AMERICA

French Featherweight Out to Eliminate Title Claimant Before Sailing.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(By A. P.)—"We will go to the United States the day of the featherweight situation in Europe is absolutely clear," said Robert Eudeline, manager of Eugene Crigui, the boxer, to L'Auto in connection with a cable dispatch received from Jack Kearns to Eudeline to bring Crigui to the United States if the Frenchman defeats Matthews, styled "champion of Europe." Kearns desires to arrange a fight between Crigui and Johnny Dundee.

"So long as a single adversary remains who is capable of putting up a claim to Crigui's featherweight championship," Eudeline continued, "we will remain here." After all the difficulties we have had to win the title from Arthur Wynn, the Belgian (who was knocked out by Crigui in Paris September 9) Matthews is now claiming the crown. Crigui will settle that question December 2. Then there will be only the winner of the Frush-Handley bout for Crigui to meet to definitely settle the championship.

It is useless to discuss Matthews' claim to the championship of Europe. The only official champion is Crigui. I cannot prevent Matthews from calling himself champion of Europe, of the world, or anything else he likes. Let him beat Crigui December 2 and then we shall see."

TRIPLE TIE LOOMS AS POSSIBILITY IN CONFERENCE RACE

Iowa, Michigan and Chicago Likely to Come Through With Clean Slate.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—(By A. P.)—A triple tie for the western conference championship between Michigan, Chicago and Iowa, was the prominent possibility of the football horizon tonight as a result of Illinois' 3 to 0 victory over the heretofore undefeated Wisconsin team yesterday.

Iowa passed another barrier in defeating Minnesota, 28 to 14, while Chicago was scoring a 14 to 9 victory over Ohio State; Michigan was idle, but Northwestern by defeating Purdue 24 to 13, won its first game in two years and Indiana lost 23 to 0 to West Virginia, this being the only intercollegiate game of the day involving a conference team.

Iowa's chances at present appear better than those of either of her rivals for the Hawkeyes finished the hardest part of their schedule yesterday by defeating Minnesota. Ohio and Northwestern, two of the weaker Big Ten eleven are the remaining barriers to Iowa's championship hopes. Chicago has yet to meet two dangerous opponents in Illinois and Wisconsin, while Michigan meets Wisconsin and Minnesota. On form to date the leaders should all emerge victorious although Chicago will probably be extended in both games and Michigan will find Wisconsin a dangerous rival.

Badgers May Be Toltale.

Wisconsin, eliminated from the front rank, may finally decide the championship for every team beaten by the Badgers from now on will eliminate a championship contender. They will face Michigan at Ann Arbor next Saturday, Michigan having the advantage of two weeks rest and a thorough knowledge of the plays Illinois forced Wisconsin to uncover Saturday.

Chicago faces Illinois, and will take no chances, although the down state team is not a logical winner. Iowa should have little difficulty in handling Ohio State at Columbus despite the showing made by the Buckeyes against Chicago yesterday.

The "dope" is against the Buckeyes, based on Minnesota's 9 to 0 victory over Ohio and Iowa's 28 to 14 victory over Minnesota. Northwestern anticipates an easy victory over Monmouth.
